Gavin

Support for Learning
Assistant

There's a huge variety of duties and tasks in my job, always new
things happening.
I help children in the classroom and on a
one-to-one basis with
for example speech,
sign language and mobility. It's really rewarding and I would encourage more men to consider this line of work.

In my previous job I worked shifts and now
work 30 hours a week,
Monday to Friday,
9.30 am - 3.30 pm
during term time
which is more suitable for me too.

Louise

Stonemason, Building
Services

My duties include
anything from
renewing concrete
steps, laying paths,
plastering walls
or ripping out old fireplaces. It's a very physical job. I've been doing it for 10 years and have fitted
in having two children
in that time.

I am contracted to work 37 hours per week. The standard
hours for my job are 8.30 am to 4.30 pm,
Monday to Thursday
and 8.30 am to 1.00 pm on Friday.
As I have access to flexi time I can choose to start work earlier and take flexi days
which suit my work-life balance.

I would recommend
my job to anyone.

Dawn

Head of Technology
Faculty

As Head of the Technology Faculty
I am responsible
for teaching
and delivering a
variety of subjects including Technical Studies, Graphic
Communications,
Craft and Home Economics.

My career shows how things can change!
When I became a Technical Teacher 14 years ago, I was one of very few
female teachers.
That didn't prevent
me progressing
to my current role
and today, my department has more
female than male
teachers.

If you see a job you would like and are qualified for - go for it!

Pat

Street Sweeper/Tip
Master Driver

I work as part of a team tasked with
emptying litter and wheelie bins, I drive
a tip master vehicle
and am being trained
to operate a snow
plough. I like driving, working outdoors, as part of a team, and developing my skills so this is a great job for me.

I work full-time hours
on a shift pattern over a 7 day period which consists of 12 hours
and can start as early as 5.30 am.
