

Hospices of Hope can offer pupils from your school, involved in working towards their Duke of Edinburgh Awards, the opportunity to volunteer at our shop in Perth.

As one of our valuable volunteers:

- You will be part of a team dedicated to improving the care available for terminally ill adults and children in South Eastern Europe.
- You can volunteer during the week or on a Saturday. The number of hours you Volunteer each week is flexible, from as little as one hour at a time.

What type of activities will you be involved in?

- Sorting donations
- Changing displays
- Helping our customers
- Stocking shelves
- Encouraging others to get involved

What does Hospices of Hope ask from you?

- Honesty
- Integrity
- Reliability & dependability
- Good interpersonal skills and willingness to be part of a team.
