What we offer

The Supported Living Team support adults with learning disabilities to live in their own homes.

Who are our services for?

We help adults with a learning disability who are 16 years and older.

We help you to make choices about your care.

We help you to communicate at home and in the community.

We support you to look after your home and to stay safe.

We encourage and support you to do the things that you want to at home and in the community.

We will support you to go to leisure activities of your choice.

We help you to stay safe at home by using technology that lets staff know if you need help.

We can help you with travelling to and from places you like to go.

Our responsibilities: we will...

Treat you with respect.

Help to keep you safe.

Respect your views and opinions.

Listen to you.

Respect your privacy and look after your belongings.

Give you information and help you make choices.

The Care Inspectorate checks that we support you well.

We will encourage and support you to get involved with lots of activities in your area...
