

Identification Needed For Universal Credit Claim

Primary ID (one of the following is required)
Current passport
National Identity Card
Full photo card driving licence
Provisional photo card driving licence
Bank or Building Society card with sort code and account number on it (not all banks have this information on their cards)
Residence permit
Permanent residence card
Biometric Residence Permit
Immigration Status Document
Certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen

Secondary ID (two of the following are required)
Paper type driving licence
Birth certificate
Local Authority rent card
Council tax documents
Tenancy agreement for current property
Utility/telephone bills
Current bank statements
Current debit/switch card
Current charge card
Current saving account book
Personal cheque book
Travel pass with photograph
Vehicle registration/insurance documents
Expired passport
Marriage certificate
Civil partnership certificate
Divorce/annulment papers
Dissolution of civil partnership papers
Current/recent wage/pension slip that includes name and NINO
Letter from employer/contract of employment
Correspondence from HMRC
Invoices (if self-employed)
Life assurance/insurance policies
Mortgage repayment policies
NHS Medical card
Student ID card (if a student)
Form B79 (if recently discharged from prison)
Bail Sheet